CATALOGUE 2024

Thank you for your interest in AzBooks!

Drawing on our 25+ years of experience, the AzBooks team of dedicated professionals takes pride in creating and publishing unique children's books enhanced with interactive sound modules and other engaging features that enable children to read them as well as to play with them.

We strive to be innovative in what we do and use unconventional approaches that encourage kids to learn with pleasure. Every series of our books is aimed at developing some specified skills. Using the special SKILLS DEVELOPMENT SYSTEM below, you can choose the titles that best suit the needs of your customers.

The AzBooks team sees its primary mission as providing children aged 0 to 6+ with interactive, up-to-date learning that helps develop their memory, attention span, and perception of the world around them. Thanks to the skills and commitment of our talented and creative editors, designers, and illustrators, our range of products is constantly broadening as we add new inspiring titles to it.

Our partners in 86 countries appreciate the originality, assortment, novelty, and high quality of our books, which are easily adapted to any language, culture, and market. Since our partnership is premised on flexibility, we are open to various forms of cooperation. We offer co-editions, distribution of our products, and implementation of individual projects, such as adapting your projects to our bestselling formats and managing the production process upon delivery. We invite you to contact our regional rights managers to explore these opportunities or share your ideas on our further mutually beneficial cooperation.

You are welcome to learn more about our foreign rights sales at www.azbooks.com or meet us at our booths at the biggest book and toy fairs worldwide.

Sincerely,
AzBooks team
